

Cisco | Networking Academy®
Mind Wide Open™

Certificate of Course Completion

Fundamentals of UNIX

During the Cisco® Networking Academy course, administered by the undersigned instructor, the student was able to proficiently:

- Use UNIX command line and graphical environment to perform common user-level tasks
- Access the UNIX help system using the man pages and other local and online sources
- Navigate the UNIX file system
- Use the command line interface (CLI) and GUI based file manager to create and change files and folders
- Use the vi editor and GUI based editor to create text files
- View and change file and directory permissions
- Use command-line and GUI utilities to meet custom printing requirements and manage print jobs
- Use tar, compress, and jar to archive, backup, and restore files and directories
- Display, manage, and terminate UNIX background and foreground processes
- Perform basic user-level troubleshooting of network connectivity and file permission problems
- Properly shutdown a UNIX system
- Create a simple shell script

Daniel Gheorghe
Student

InfoAcademy
Academy Name

Bucharest
Location

May 19, 2008
Date

Morar, Ionut Cristian
Instructor

Instructor Signature